DAYS 1-3:

Arrival in Ghana and Accra City Tours

After arriving in Accra, visit Independence Square (where Ghanaians celebrate the nation's Independence Day each year); and stand under Black Star Square which is a monument to the Black Star of Ghana, which Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, Ghana's first Prime Minister adopted in tribute to Marcus Garvey.

Visit the Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum, which is the final resting place of the first President of Ghana and one of Africa's most renowned Statesmen and Pan-Africanists.

We will drive through the commercial districts of Accra and see the amazing development and growth of Accra; and stop at points of interest as we crisscross through Accra, one of the most vibrant and exciting cities in Africa.

Visit the W.E.B. DuBois Memorial Center

Visit the W.E.B. DuBois Memorial Center for Pan-African Culture, which is a research library and gallery containing the invaluable manuscripts of Dr. W.E.B. DuBois.

On one evening, we will have our Welcome Dinner, which will include cultural performances.

On another evening, you will have the option for a night out at Zen Garden, one of Accra's most popular dinner clubs.

DAYS 4-6:

We Tour Kumasi, and its Surrounding Towns

Akwasidae Festival

Members will have the opportunity to witness the amazing Akwasidae Festival, one of the most important and historically significant festivals in all of Africa. The Akwasidae rituals and events honor the ancestors and allows Asante chiefs and their subjects to pay homage to the Asantehene "the king of kings," the king of all of the Asante.

While at Manhyia Palace, explore the Museum, which is filled with countless relics and artifacts that highlight the richness of the history and culture of the Asante people.

Stop for photos at the Okomfo Anokye Monument, dedicated to the traditional priest who "conjured" from the skies the famous Golden Stool that unified the Asante people.

Have lunch at Ike's Café, on the grounds of the National Center for Culture in Kumasi.

This well-known restaurant is located on its own "lake" and is famous for its fresh fish, which tour members can select live from Ike's "point and kill" tank.

Traditional Naming Ceremony

Participate in a Traditional Naming Ceremony, where you will be given a traditional Asante name based on your day of birth and welcomed into your "adopted" family with dance and celebration.

DAYS 7-8:

We Tour the Central Region

Wade in the water at "Slave River"

On the way to Elmina, we will stop at Assin Manso to take part in a Ceremony of Remembrance at the "Slave River", where our ancestors were made to bathe after their long and grueling march to the coast of Ghana, which could have lasted up to six months.

Visit Elmina and Cape Coast Slave Dungeons

Tour Elmina and Cape Coast Slave Dungeons, infamous as the places where the largest number of enslaved Africans were housed before shipment to the Americas.

DAY 9:

Travel from Elmina to Accra

You will have a free morning to enjoy the ocean, the pool, and one of Ghana's most beautiful beaches.

In the afternoon, we will depart for Accra. After check in at your hotel, enjoy a free evening to prepare for your departure to the US the next day.

DAY 10:

Depart to the US

If you are departing early in the morning, we will try to arrange a breakfast box.

But if your flight is in the evening, we will arrange for the latest check-out possible from the hotel so you can spend the morning enjoying the hotel's amenities and you might have a chance for some last-minute shopping before proceeding to the airport for check-in and your flight back to the United States.

Examples of hotels we use:

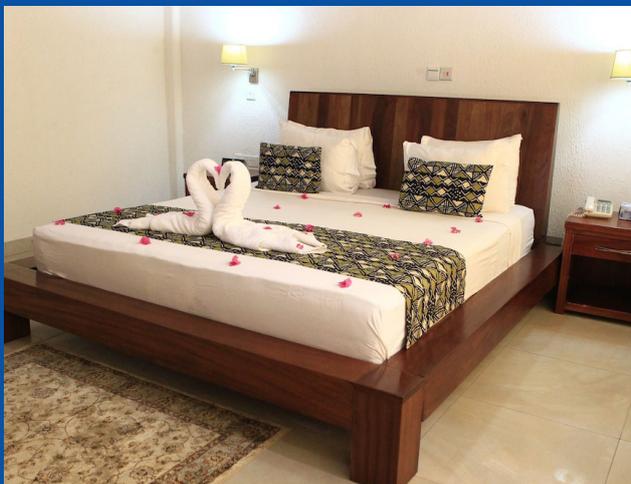

- La-Palm Royal Beach Hotel in Accra

- Lancaster Kumasi City in Kumasi

- Coconut Grove Beach Resort in Elmina
