DAYS 1-2:

Arrival and city of Stone Town Tours

Zanzibar City Tour

Discover the rich history, vibrant culture, and timeless beauty of Zanzibar City on an unforgettable city tour through the heart of Tanzania. Experience the unique blend of African, Arab, Indian, and European influences while enjoying local cuisine, cultural landmarks, and stunning views of the Indian Ocean.

Visit Darajani Market

Step into the vibrant heart of Stone Town at Darajani Market, where colorful stalls overflow with fresh spices, tropical fruits, seafood, and local crafts.

Experience the sights, sounds, and aromas of everyday Zanzibari life while discovering the island's rich culture and warm hospitality.

Visit the Forodhani Night Market

In the evening, visit Forodhani Gardens which is in the heart of Stone Town comes alive as a vibrant open-air night market where locals and visitors wander among vendors serving everything from pizza and samosas to fresh sugar-cane juice, a must-do for anyone wanting a real, delicious taste of Zanzibar's warm street culture.

Watch the sunset over the Indian Ocean, sample local delicacies, and soak up the charm of Stone Town for an unforgettable cultural experience.

DAY 3:

Visit Jozani Forest

Jozani forest and Ngezi nature reserves are the centre of biodiversity in Zanzibar. Jozani forest is the largest area of mature forest left on the island. It is also host to the endangered Zanzibar Red Colobus monkey, several species of butterflies, about 40 species of birds and several other animals.

Visit Zanzibar Land Animals Park

After Jozani Forest, continue to ZALA Park. ZALA (Zanzibar Land Animals) Park was founded as a project to help local people appreciate the value of wildlife, with funds raised by tourist visits. The park itself appears forlorn today, as

After ZALA Park, return to Stone Town to participate in the festival carnival Parade.

In the evening, we will join the Sauti za Busara festival concert. Sauti za Busara literally means the sounds of wisdom in Swahili. Is the only Tanzania music festival that holds movers and shakers sessions to showcase the rich African and Swahili music.

DAY 4:

Visit the Slave Market

The Slave Market of Stone Town has been inactive for decades, but memorials provide a stark reminder of the horrific acts that once took place here.

Visit this site and reflect on the atrocities of the past as you stand in the shadow of the Anglican Church. Learn about the important role slavery played in Zanzibar's history.

Shop at the community market in Fumba Town

The island is a shopper's paradise with a variety of options to explore. From bustling markets to hidden gem boutiques, you'll discover unique treasures and souvenirs that will make your Zanzibar experience even more memorable.

In the evening, participate in the Sauti za Busara festival.

DAY 5: Visit Prison Island

Prison Island: Prison Island, also known as Changuu Island was left untouched until it was inhabited by the Arabs in the 1860's. The island was used as a temporary shelter for slaves who were considered rebellious or with potential to lead revolts.

The slaves were kept there before being sold abroad. The Island was also used to quarantine those who got sick during yellow fever epidemics.

In the evening, enjoy a free afternoon to enjoy the beach and the hotels amenities. Relax and refresh to prepare for the last and biggest night of the Sauti za Busara festival.

DAYS 6-8:

Travel from Stone Town to Nungwi

Spice Tour

Before we depart to Stone Town, we will visit Spice Farms. Zanzibar is known as the "Spice Island," it offers travelers the opportunity to see, smell, and taste a variety of spices and tropical fruits including cloves, cinnamon, vanilla, nutmeg, and cardamom.
